

Why are we removing what looks like a healthy tree at developed recreation sites?

20" White Fir (felled at Capulin Picnic Area) with some red and mostly green needles. Cracked 20' up when it hit ground (wood inside was dry and rotted).

Many trees are "failing" due to weakness at the base and/or other points.